

Career, College and Scholarship Searching Tools

Career and Interest Inventories:

My Next Move:

This website surveys various activities which you choose how much you like or dislike on a 60 question survey. Results are then provided which showcase your top Career Interest Areas, and specific jobs which match to your results and desired level of education/training after high school

- <http://www.mynextmove.org/>

Human Metrics:

This website provides a 64 question personality inventory which results in you learning about your Meyers-Briggs personality type. This surveys various statements which you will rank on how much you agree or disagree with each one.

- <http://www.humanmetrics.com/cgi-win/JTypes2.asp>
 - Following your survey results which indicate your personality type, go to this website to find specific careers that are known to be good fits with your specific personality type:
<http://cms.bsu.edu/about/administrativeOffices/CareerCenter/Explore/Assessment/TypeFocus/WhatPersonality.aspx>

Career Information:

US Department of Labor: Bureau of Labor Statistics

Use this website to look for up to date information on very specific jobs. You can search by specific job titles, groups, pay, growth, training and projected job openings:

- <http://www.bls.gov/ooh/>

Job Search Websites:

- Riley Guide:
 - <http://www.rileyguide.com/>
- Indeed:
 - <http://www.indeed.com/>

College and Training Search Websites:

CollegeBoard College Search

Use this website to research for specific colleges and universities that offer the programs, activities, size, location that you desire. Modify the filters on the left side of the screen to be more specific, or more broad to generate different results.

- <https://bigfuture.collegeboard.org/college-search?navid=gh-cs>

CheckOutaCollege.com

This website exclusively features community and technical colleges in Washington State. You can search by college, program and by ZIP Code.

- <http://checkoutacollege.com/FindProgram/CollegeSearch.aspx>

College Greenlight

Use this website College Greenlight to search for scholarships, colleges that fit your values and explore majors that fit your interests.

Scholarship Search Websites

Check out the Franklin Counseling Blog's Scholarship Page for a bunch of helpful links for specific scholarships and searching tools:

<http://franklinquakers.org/blog/counseling/scholarships/>